Kissing The Pink

Kissing the Pink's last physically-released album, Sugarland, which was their first in seven years, was a blend of psychedelic music and dance-pop. Since then, the band have made an album with Ecologist called Hot Filth which took the mixing of psychedelic music with jazz and other musical forms further still.

From what I have read, the men of Kissing the Pink were middle-class English music school graduates who morphed from an experimental New Wave goth band into a dance production team, and reggae-style toasting does not suit them. "Moving On" is the slow-dancing song. The rest of the album does not generally touch me.

Kissing the pink werden ganz gerne zu Unrecht auf den Hit "The last film" oder den Club-Hit "Big man restless" vom ersten Album "Naked" reduziert. Das zweite Album ist in meinen Augen eines der innovativsten und kreativsten Alben der 80er Jahre.
